About Edwin Siew Cheok Wai

Edwin Siew is an avid advocate of using 'hands-on' activities and nature in tandem with impactful experiences to engage clients and facilitate learning. His keen interest in all aspects of human endeavor, performance and development, coupled with his passion for the outdoors, is greatly evident in the quality of his courses and his pursuit in life itself. His main achievement includes the 1st Singapore Everest Summiteer in 1998, attempted Everest and K2 without bottled oxygen supplementary. A firm believer of giving his utmost in whatever he does, Edwin constantly innovates and renew himself to learn and provide the optimal learning experience for the clients.

Edwin has 20 years professional experience with the Outward Bound Singapore (OBS), where he was a senior trainer / facilitator; he also looked after the training and development for all the instructional staff in OBS. Edwin is now the founder of the Incredible Journeys where he provides training and consultancy services to individual or companies. He also led clients to expeditions around the world.